

In Loving Memory of

Fr. John F. Quinn

May 21, 1945 – January 14, 2016

Devoted son of Margaret and John Quinn.

Fr. John Quinn was a graduate of Cardinal Hayes High School and Fordham College. Fr. Quinn earned a Master Degree in History at Fordham; a Master of Divinity at St. Joseph Seminary and completed course requirements for a Doctorate in Biblical Studies at Fordham.

Fr. Quinn was ordained a priest at St. Patrick Cathedral on May 29, 1971. He served as a teacher and Religion department chairman at Archbishop Stepinac and Maria Regina High Schools. He was Parochial Vicar at Our Lady of Sorrows in White Plains (1990 – 1994). He was a Visiting Weekend Associate and Pastor of the Church of St. Patrick in Armonk (1994 - 2013).

“Father Quinn was noted during all his years of ministry for a clear voice in bringing the message, consolation and love of the Lord to each person he met – child, youth, engaged couple, young parents, troubled people, seriously ill and older citizens.”
